

ST. PATRICK EXERCISES IN WESTERLY

Large Audience in Hibernian Hall Hears Interesting Program

—Plaintiff Testifies in Suit of Symes vs. McNeill—

Funeral of Mrs. Hannah J. Stott—New Trial Asked For in Thomas-Burdick Case.

The wearing of the green in Westerly on St. Patrick's Day was not confined to the residents of Irish birth or descent, but was almost universal, as nearly every man, woman and child, and even some animals, were decorated with reminders of "the day we celebrate." Although much of the natural green was covered with a mantle of snow, the green predominated. There was no parade or public demonstration in Westerly, but during the day there were several St. Patrick tosses, and in the evening a formal order of exercises was observed in Hibernian hall, before a large audience.

Rev. John J. Fitzgerald, pastor of St. Michael's church, Pawtucket, presided, and there were admirable addresses by Rev. Lawrence Kelly, the pastor of Church of the Immaculate Conception, and by Rev. Walter Lyddy, assistant pastor of St. Michael's.
There was chorus singing by the combined choirs of the Catholic churches of Westerly and Pawtucket, the selections including patriotic, merriment and Irish songs, the celebration ending with the singing of the Star Spangled Banner. Songs and dances by twelve Irish colliers, and songs by the following completed the interesting program: Misses Clara Handell and Helen McGrath, Keyson A. Doyle, Miss Alice McGowan of St. Michael's, Misses Cavanagh, Miss Josephine Leahy of Stonington and Miss Teresa McMahon, with Mrs. Thomas L. Murray, accompanist. The committee of arrangements was composed of John A. Shea, James Shea, John Lynch, Patrick Lynch and Jeremiah Shea.

In the superior court in session at Westerly, Judge Chester W. Barrows, the trial was resumed Friday morning in the case of Contractor David P.
Symes against Mrs. Jean McNeill, wife of Archibald McNeill, of Bridgeport, in connection with the construction of a $17,000 summer house at Muskegon.
Mr. Symes brings suit to recover $6, 000 alleged to be due him, while the defendant contends that the plaintiff is endeavoring to force the defendant to pay bills that are outside of the contract, and for which the defendant is in no way responsible, and not agreed upon in written contract or in verbal agreement. Mr. Symes, who was on the witness stand Thursday afternoon, was recalled Friday morning and the cross examination was continued by Attorney Frederick Fallon, of Bridgeport. Associated with Mr. Fallon is Attorney Frank Wilcox of Providence, Rathbun and Dunn are counsel for plaintiff. The right of jury trial was waived and the case is being tried before Judge Barrows, the counsel agreeing that there were legal complications that could be more satisfactorily disentangled than if considered by a jury unacquainted with the intricacies of the case.

Important News Concerning Carpets

The cost of all carpet material has been bounding.
Labor is securing more liberal pay. These two influ-

Casino Reopened.

Fred Reynolds, formerly of this place, has been honored by election as exalted ruler of Brooklyn, N. Y., lodge of Elks. Brooklyn lodge is the principal lodge in the country in point of membership, having more than 4,000 members. Mr. Reynolds is a nephew of Mrs. William Barber of High Street and is a frequent visitor here.

Willow Point Casino Reopened.
Work on the addition to Willow Point casino, which has been under way for several weeks, has been completed and the newly enlarged dance hall was opened St. Patrick's day for the first time. The actual amount of dance floor space now is over 6,000 square feet. Two buildings, both which have been used for dancing, have been turned into one. The orchestra led by William Noyes, violin, Miss Inez Batten, piano, Philip Button, cornet, Trombone, and Noxon and Edward Plinkman, drums, furnished good music for the entire evening.
Many came from New London, Westerly, Stonington, Groton and Noxon.
The entire floor space has been planned.
The new section, the building north of the one that has been used all winter, has been decorated in conformity with the other. The windows at the east end of the hall have been enlarged and the lounge rooms at the end of the building have also been enlarged and more attractive by the installation of new furniture. In the north building it was necessary to raise the old floor about two feet to conform with the other hall and an entirely new hard wood floor was laid.
The ceiling has been removed, thus leaving a clear space to the rafters and roof. There is a refreshment counter in each department. The entrance, however, will be through the south portions and formerly the cloak room, ladies' retiring room and men's smoking room will be conducted as formerly in the north part.
Mr. Maxson has spared no pains in making the casino attractive.

Local Laconics.
Congressman Stinness is seeking an appropriation of $10,000 to add a por-tico to the new federal building at Narragansett Pier.

Senator Louis W. Arnold has introduced a resolution establishing definite times for the sessions of the superior court for Washington county at

ColCHESTER
Second Trial at Salem of Case of Stark vs. Griswold Chappell Results in Acquitted—Chappell's Rearrest Due to Clerical Error.

The case of the state vs. Griswold Chappell was tried at the town hall in Salem at 11 o'clock Tuesday morning, before Judge Charles F. Brown of Colchester. Ernest L. Spencer of Salem appeared for the state and George V. Cavanaugh defended Mr.
Chappell. The case was especially interesting as it had been tried before H. A. Rathbun some time ago and in recording the judgment Mr. Chappell was re-arrested and brought before the court. Judge Brown after hearing the case acquitted the accused.

L. B. S. Meeting.

JEWETT CITY
Young Ladies' Whist Club Entertains at Leap Year Dance—Funeral of Henry R. Buck—Harmony Club Meets With Mrs. Robinson.

The Young Ladies' Whist club gave a leap year dance in Rioux's hall on St.
Patrick's night. It was very largely attended, the young ladies having arranged a most successful affair. The hall has seldom looked more attractive, showing the effect of tasteful workmanship. A large and entire room was covered with a wide border of white, large and small shamrocks. The orchestra was stationed on the stage behind the main entrance. The windows were daintily curtained in white and the entrances in green and white. Overhead were green and white streamers, green and white covered with a green shade. One corner of the hall was transformed into a cozy corner with rugs, chairs and flowers. In another corner was a punch table, where Miss Nellie Franklin served. A reception room for the ladies had been arranged, and in the opposite corner, the ice cream was served by W. O. Soule. The music was by the Hijou orchestra. The patronesses were Mrs. H. N. Wheelock and Mrs. G. A.
Haskell. A number of people were present from out of town.

SECRECY SHROUDS TROOPS IN MEXICO

Columbus camp to what is said to be nearly the size of the original expedition. Heavy construction work of many varieties was under way today and a new city was rising with almost visible progress to become the headquarters of the permanent base which will be established here.

TROOPS ARE MAKING
THIRTY MILES A DAY.
Expected They Would Reach Casas Grandes at Midnight.

El Paso, Tex., March 17.—American troops will reach Casas Grandes at midnight tonight, General Gabriel Gavira announced at Juarez late today.
Casas Grandes is a little more than sixty miles from the point where Colonel George A. Dodd's columns entered Mexico, so that the Americans have been moving more than thirty miles a day.
General Gavira announced that he had a telegram that a courier from the Americans already had reached Casas Grandes announcing that the United States troops might be expected at midnight.

The general said he had wired Lieutenant Colonel Refugio S. Davila, in command of the constitutional garrison at Casas Grandes, not to permit the Americans to occupy that city.

His instructions from General Carranza, General Gavira said, did not give him authority to let American troops occupy a city. It would be contrary to General Carranza's orders.

"Would your instructions prevent the Americans from passing by Casas Grandes?" General Gavira was asked.
"No."

"Would they forbid the Americans to camp outside the city?" he was asked.
"No," the general replied, "but they are not to occupy the city."

"Under those instructions," he was asked, "would it be permissible for them to march through the streets of Casas Grandes?"

"No," again replied General Gavira.
SMALLEST PARADE IN
NEW YORK IN YEARS
Shivering Crowds Lined the Sidewalk and Cheered the Procession.

New York, March 17.—(With 10 temperature only twenty degrees above zero and in the teeth of a stirring wind, nearly 2,000 members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in New York county paraded up Fifth avenue this afternoon in honor of St. Patrick.

Shivering crowds lined the sidewalks and cheered the procession. Men carrying flags and banners frequently were blown out of their places in line and the gale almost disrupted the parade at a point beyond the reviewing stand on which Mayor Mitchell sat with city officials.

The number of men in line was the smallest in years because of the organizational fight which disrupted the order and led to court proceedings to determine which branch had the right to march as representative of the A.
O. H. The faction known as the Ancient Order of Hibernians in America, which claimed to represent the national organization, was denied an injunction and refused to take part in the parade.
